

Ginn leads Runners at Edinburgh Marathon

4/6/09.

SUNDAY was not only the hottest day of the year weather wise, it was also the hottest race of the year for all 14 Pocklington Runners who made the trip up to the 2009 Edinburgh Marathon.

Richard Ginn clearly was not effected by the searing heat ran an incredible PB time of 2:56:30.

Warwick Anderson, armed with full family support was next in for Pocklington Runners with a sizzling time of 3:29:21, and Alison Thornton with her first ever marathon ran a brilliant time of 3:30:54.

Howard Cross came away with 3:35:38 and Sue Brown running her second marathon of the year in 3:47:47. Faye Jessop hot footed her way to the finish line in 4:06:55.

Marcus Bourne put all his hard months of training to the full with brilliant time of 4:14:47.

Sarah Hargreaves ran her very first marathon in memory of her brother Simon, raising money for the charity Cancer Research in a fantastic time of 4:16:33.

Paul Sheridan also on his first marathon gave a brilliant effort with an excellent time of 4:17:10 and finally hot on his heels came Sue Vicary with a scorching time of 4:20:21.

Pocklington Rockets, alias Pock runners relay team of Helen Cross, Gill Dowson, Andy Long and Chris Hargreaves also came away with medals and helped raise money for Cancer Research too, very well done to all Pocklington runners who braved the heat and made it a weekend to remember.

TOP LINE-UP ... Pocklington Runners aces ahead of the Edinburgh Marathon, are from left, Sarah Hargreaves, Marcus Bourne , Howard Cross and Warwick Anderson