

Pocklington runners

29/10/09

Dublin Marathon

BRIGHT and early Sunday morning and Alison Thornton was one of the only Pocklington Runners out racing completing The Haltemplace 10K in a cracking time of 45:19.

On an unusual day to run a marathon, or any other running event for that matter, it was the 30th anniversary of the Dublin Marathon.

Pocklington Runner Sue Vicary joined over ten thousand other runners covering the 26.2 mile course. Sue crossed the line in a brilliant time of 3:50:49 finally ducking under the four hour mark for this distance and a great effort from Sue.